

OUR SECTORS

Office

Spotless Commercial Cleaning works with some of the UK's largest companies. Our typical clients have 10 to 1,000 employees and require professional, reliable cleaning services for their offices on a daily basis.

As our name suggests, we want our clients to enjoy spotless work places, whether they are small businesses or big companies with multiple locations.

Our full service cleaning is customised to your particular office needs with many options on offer.

Our services cover every corner of your office and building space, from grand atrium receptions to welcoming washrooms, from work stations to window cleaning. We can put in place daily, weekly or monthly cleaning agreements.

We can also deal with specific commercial office cleaning needs: carpet care, IT cleaning, window cleaning, high level cleaning, deep cleaning and builders cleans.

Retail

Since the 1980's, Spotless has run many contracts for shopping centres, retail parks, car showrooms and individual retailers.

The UK is one of the most competitive retailing environments in the world. So, today's shoppers demand pristine shopping experiences and you should expect your commercial cleaner to deliver nothing less.

We look after our employees well and they stay with us for many years, ensuring that your cleaning service is consistent and reliable.

We know how hard it is to keep your retail environment clean and run your business at the same time.

At Spotless we understand the dynamic, challenging needs of cleaning retail space. Ask us for a competitive quote today.

Industrial

Spotless provides commercial cleaning and hygiene management services to some of the UK's leading manufacturers and industrial businesses.

Manufacturing facilities, particularly food producers, have high cleaning and Health & Safety standards. We understand that you have to meet high standards of cleanliness and these can have an impact on production and profitability.

Spotless cleaning operatives are well trained, managed and supported. This is reflected in our low staff turnover which ensures exacting standards of cleanliness are met over the long term.

As a client, you'll also benefit from our well-established relationships with specialist cleaning equipment and chemical suppliers.

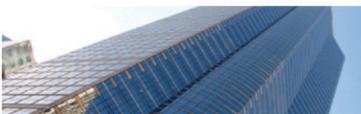

Ask Spotless to look after your commercial cleaning and deal with your hygiene challenges.

Education and Government

Spotless has been providing cleaning services to schools, colleges, councils and government departments for over 25 years.

A clean teaching environment is a key ingredient for successful learning, ensuring your staff can focus on their teaching and your students can concentrate on learning.

Our extensive experience of providing affordable cleaning services for councils and government departments means that cleaning is always done right first time. We understand your need for economy, so we always aim to develop our processes to increase efficiency and meet specific needs.

Medical

Healthcare facilities, such as doctors' surgeries, hospitals and retirement homes, require rigorous cleaning. We appreciate the importance of creating fresh, appealing environments with effective infection control and safety measures.

All our processes, equipment and cleaning and disinfectant products are carefully chosen and maintained to ensure clean, safe environments for patients, medical staff and visitors.

Medical facilities combine areas of high-traffic and high risk of cross-infection, so Spotless's cleaning and maintenance processes always take these into account.
